

COMMENTS FROM TEACHERS AND PUPILS

This selection of comments is a general sample of what we find when schools visit, to see some of the latest comments check out our Facebook or Twitter accounts

“Brilliant! It is a perfect complement to our RE work on Christianity this term.”
Middle School Teacher, Harrow

“Wow! What a great way to explore learning about Jesus. Thanks for your time and energy. Fantastic!”
Middle School Teacher, Harrow

“Great! Dynamically and sensitively presented.”
Primary School Teacher, Cambridge

“Really informative – children engaged and interested. Enjoyed learning about Jesus.”
Junior School Teacher, Cambridge

“Fantastic exhibition. PDA’s an inspired idea. Children loved it and took a lot in. Accessible for all. Thank you.”
Junior School Teacher, Kennington, London

“Something for everyone! Great! The pupils I went round with really enjoyed the experience and spontaneously asked questions of each other afterwards.”
Southwark Diocesan Board of Education, London

“A lively and stimulating exhibition – great starting point to take back into class.”
Primary School Teacher, Kennington, London

“The children were so engaged – what a wonderful experience. Thank you so much!”
Primary School Teacher, Kennington, London

“I think all of it was great”
Pupil - Primary School, Kennington, London

“I thought that it was very good because of the computers and it was fun too when I was learning.”
Pupil - Primary School, Kennington, London

“This was the best trip I have ever been to”
Pupil - Junior School, Kennington, London